The latest additions to Giorgio Armani's empire are a pair of pieds-à-terre in Paris and Manhattan, and—opening this month—the first Armani Casa shops in America.

New York

"The furniture is all very Jean-Michel Frank-inspired." Inspired? "As you know, his pieces are extraordinarily expensive, and I am not sure they are really worth it. No man's work is worth that much money."
